

Affordable housing

What does the data tell us?

Justin Douglas, Executive Director – Economics, Population & Land-use Analytics
19 October 2017

○ Contents

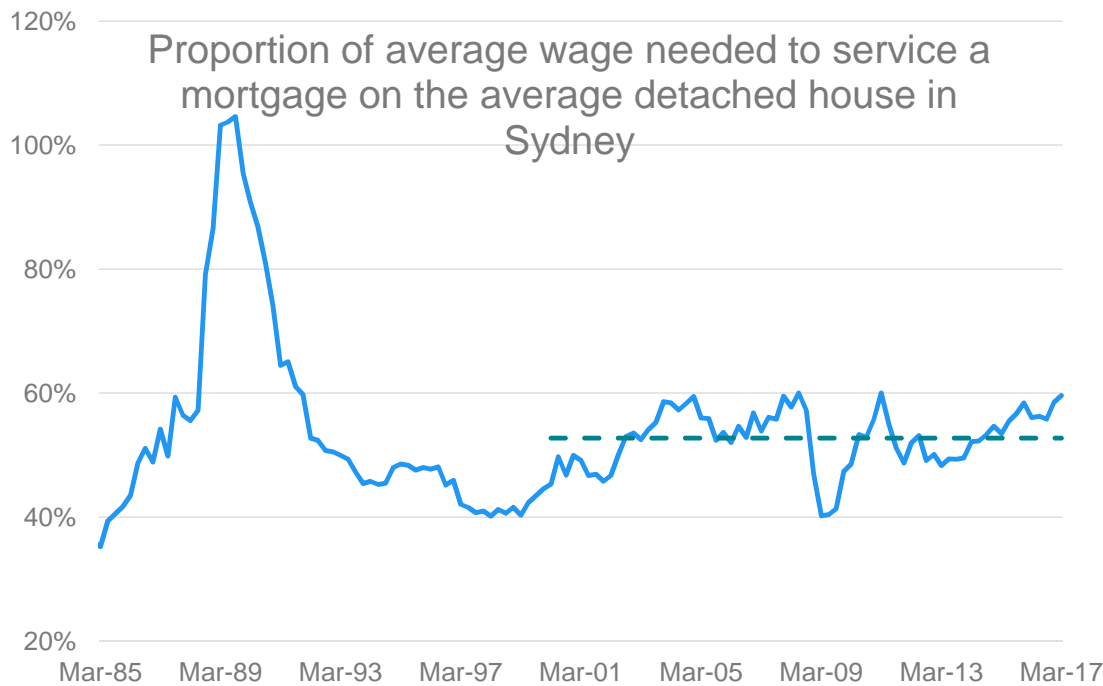

- 1. Is housing affordable?*
- 2. Affordability and location*
- 3. Are there enough homes?*
- 4. The right types of homes in the right places*

1

Is housing affordable?

Mortgage affordability

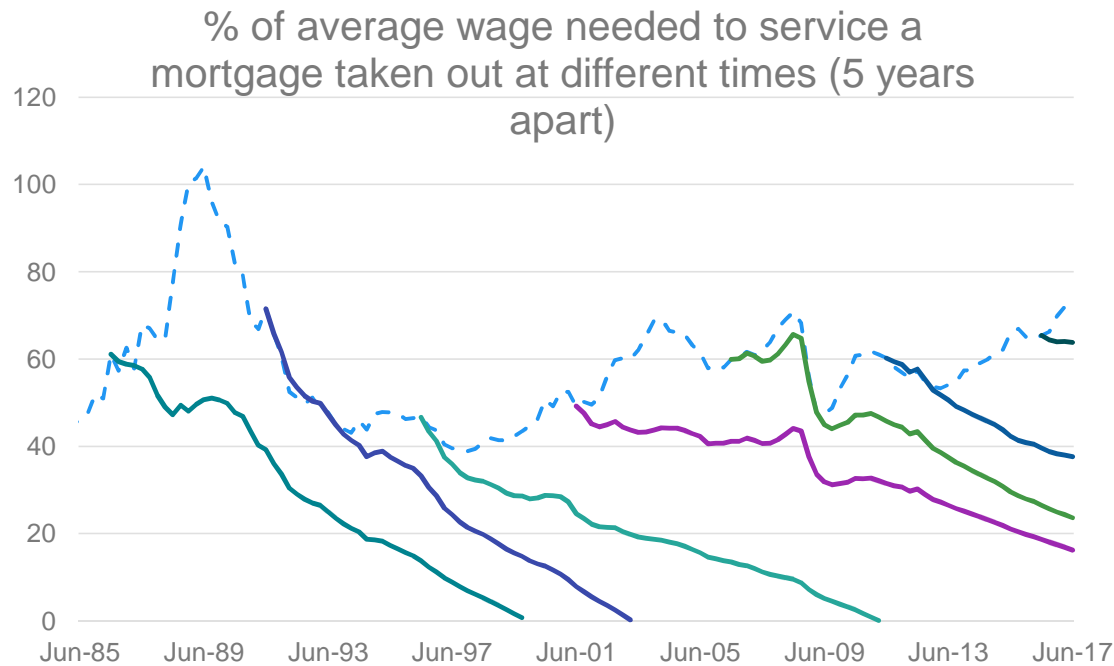

Late 1980s:

- Rapidly rising house prices
- 17% interest rates

Since 2000:

- Higher house prices largely offset by lower interest rates

Affordability – owners with a mortgage

In the past, falling interest rates and rising wages made mortgages more affordable over time

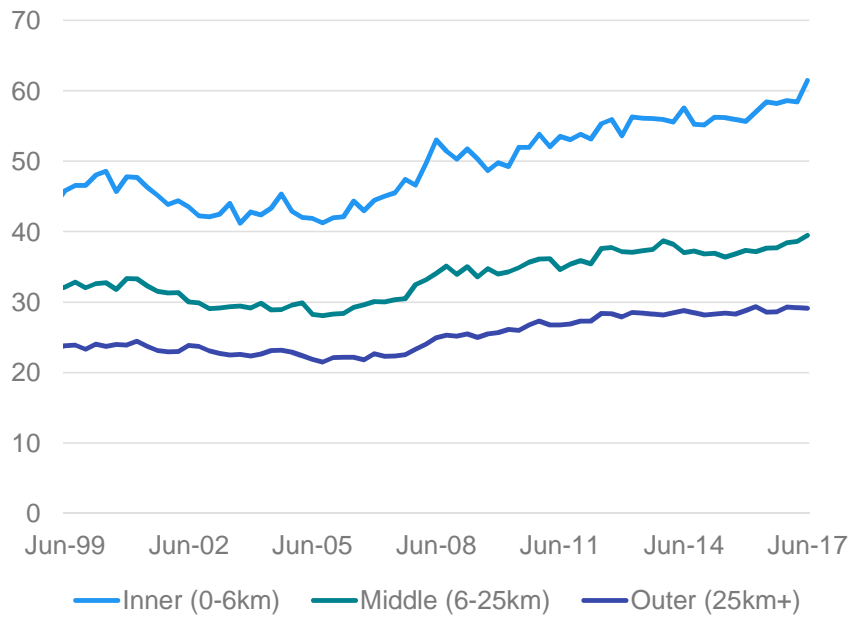

Saving a deposit

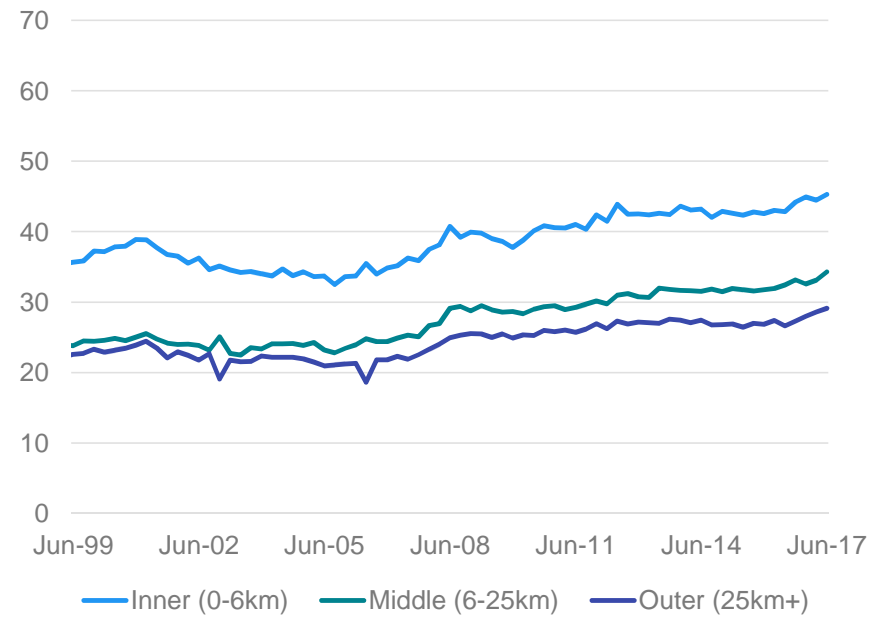

Affordability – renters

Sydney rents (% average weekly earnings)

3 bedroom house

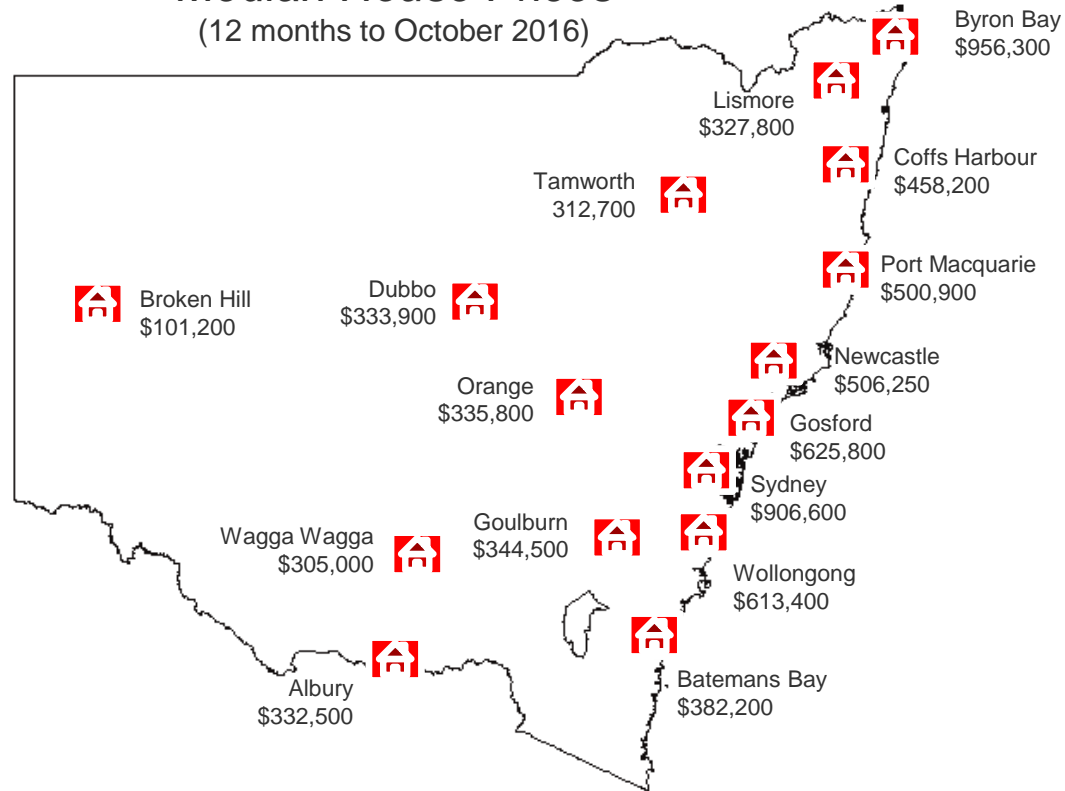

2 bedroom apartment/townhouse

Affordability and location

Land values and location across NSW

Median House Prices
(12 months to October 2016)

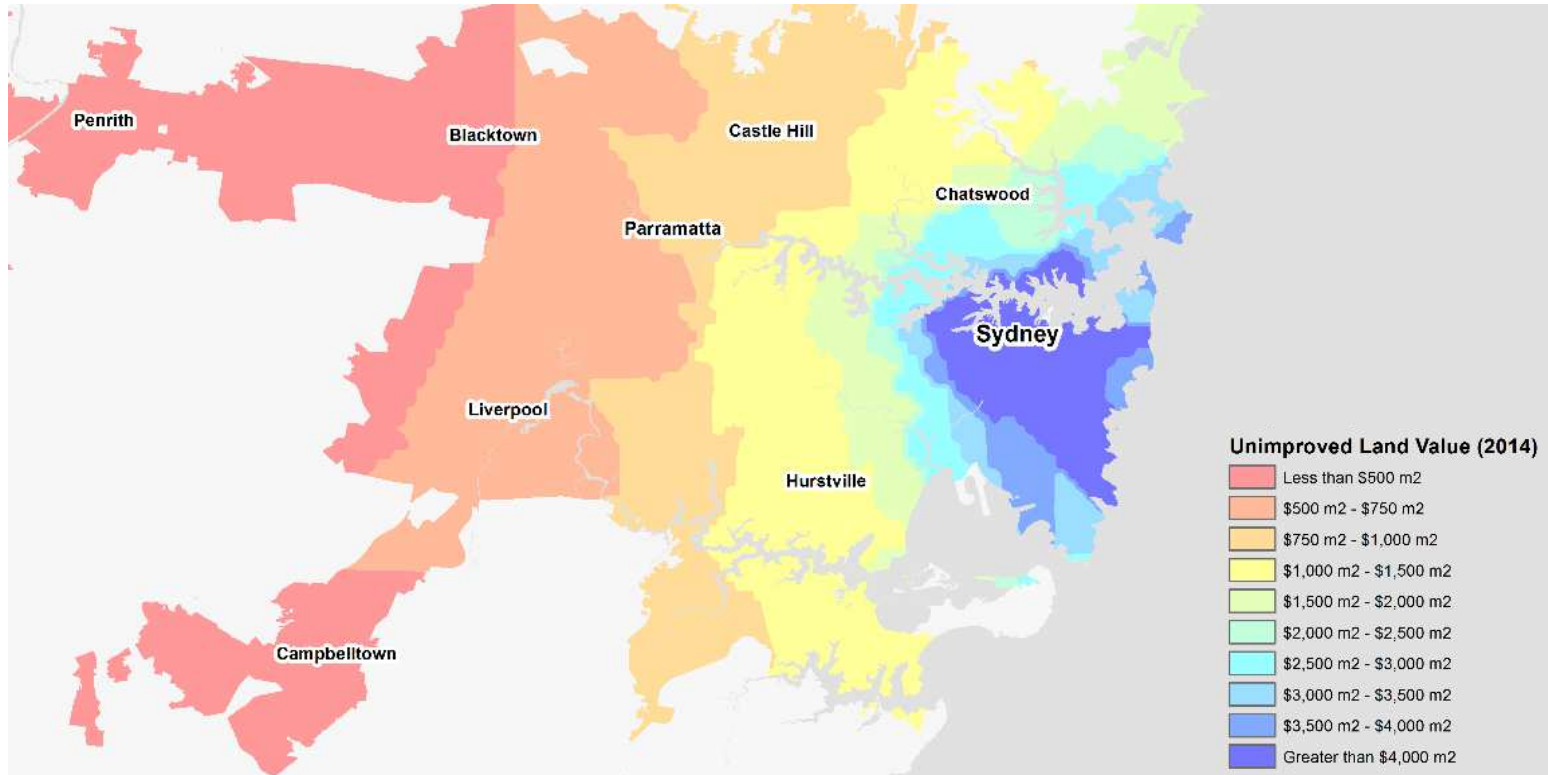

Land values are key to understanding affordability

Changes in Sydney's Median House Price
(role of construction costs and land values)

Land values and location in Sydney

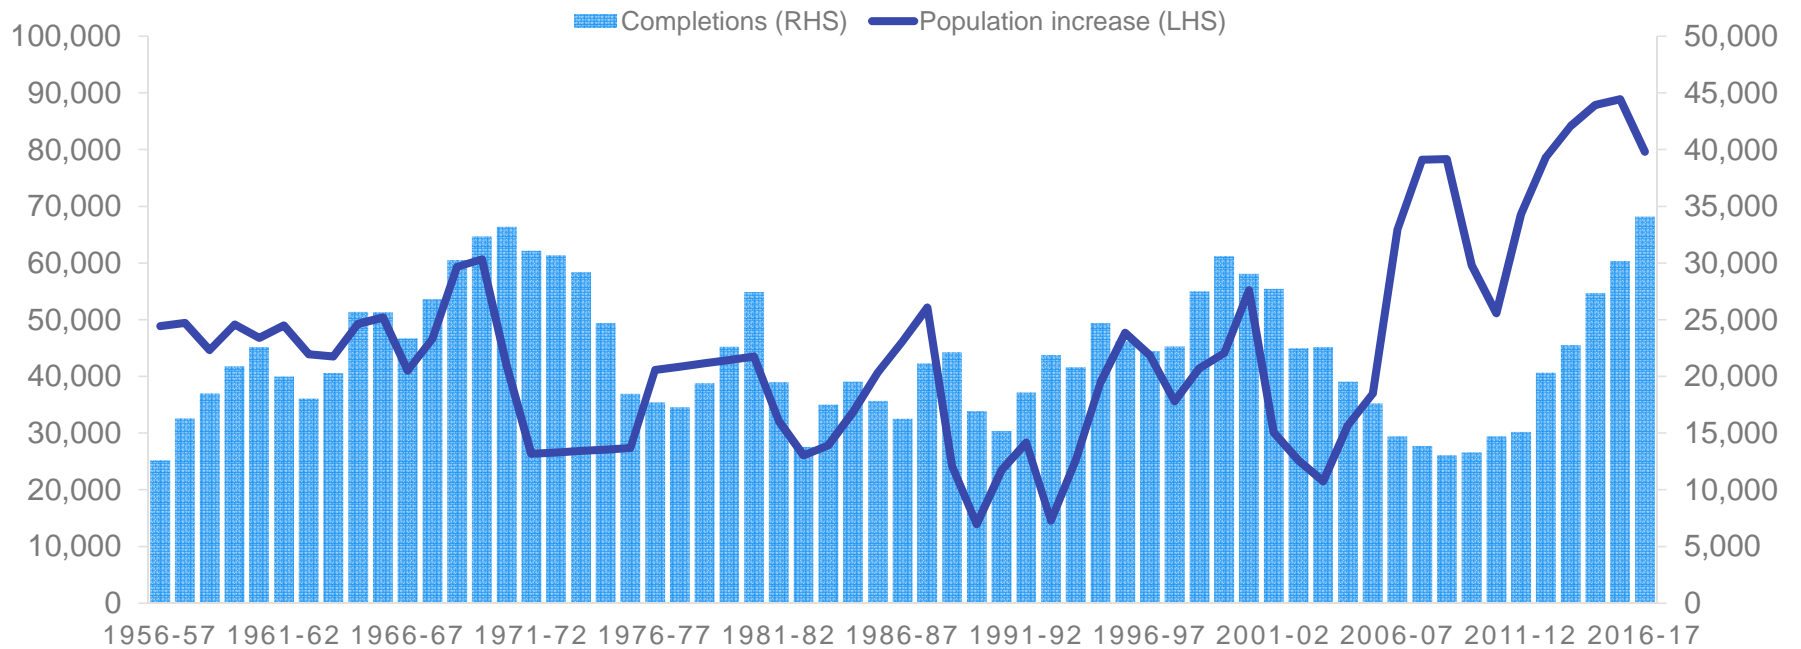

Are there enough homes?

A record number of homes are being built across Sydney

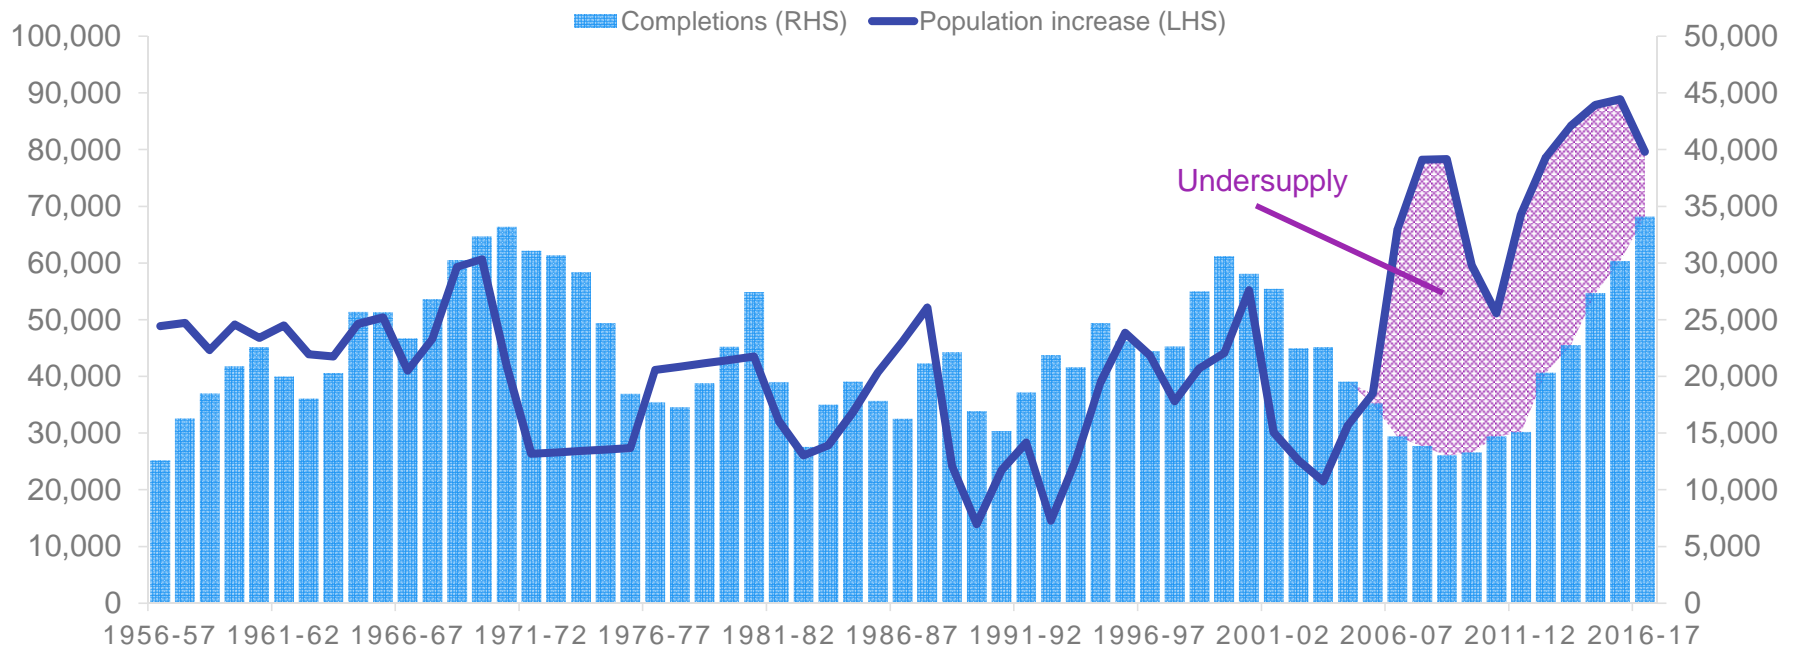

Source: DPE

Sydney has too few homes for its population

Source: DPE, ABS

Sydney has too few homes for its population

Source: DPE, ABS, DPE calculations

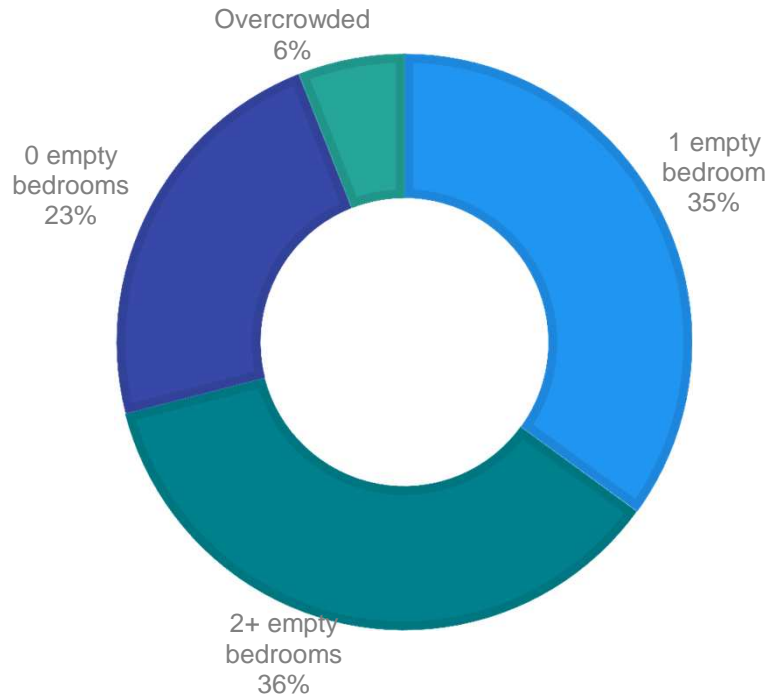

What happens if there aren't enough homes?

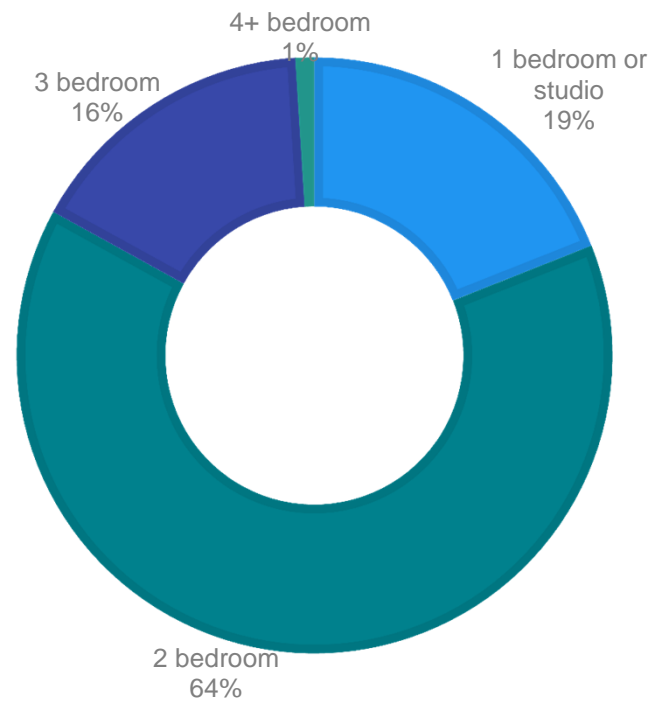

The right types of homes in the right places

The right types and size of housing

What exists today

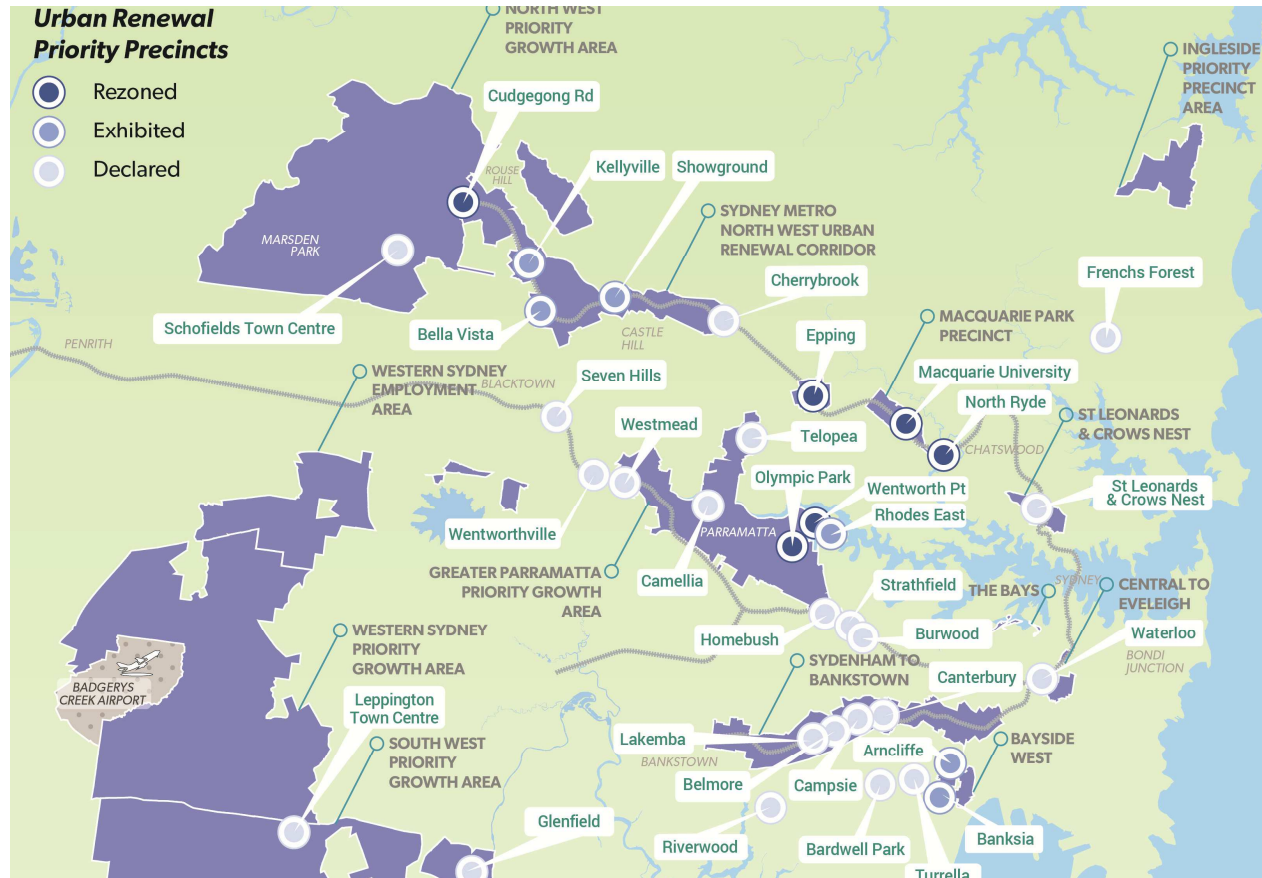

New apartments

Source: ABS 2011 Census, Basix, DPE

Housing where its needed

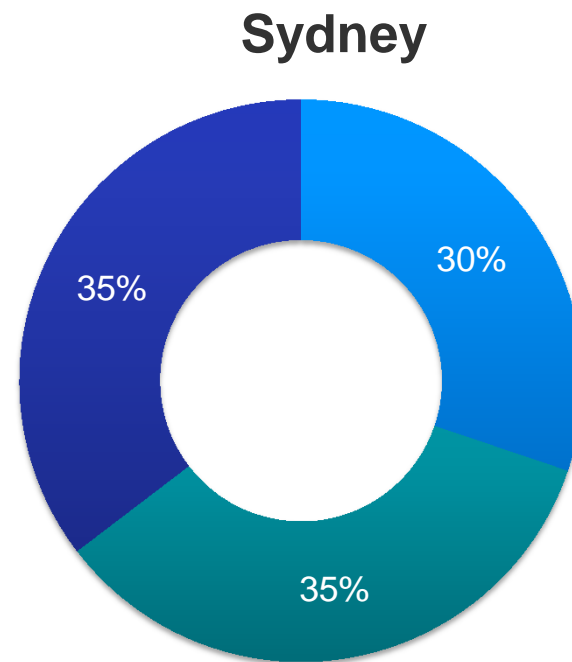

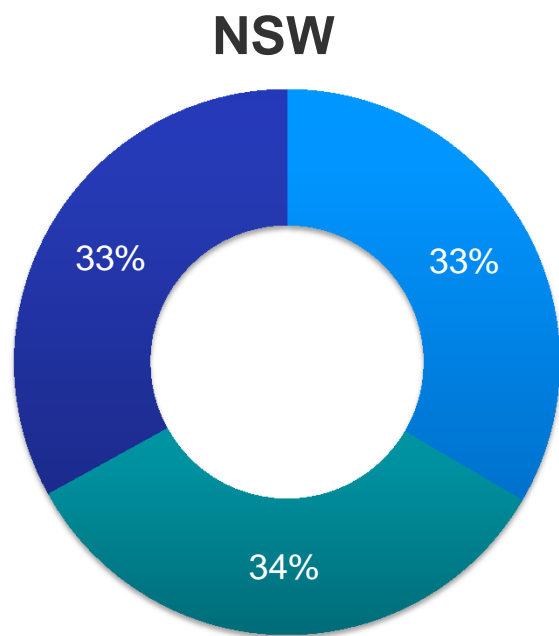

Justin Douglas

justin.douglas@planning.nsw.gov.au

Housing affordability varies by tenure type

- Own outright
- Own with mortgage
- Rent

Source: ABS, 2016 Census

File size

- To reduce the file size of the presentation:
 - Go to the 'Save As' function
 - 'Tool's dropdown (next to the 'Save' button)
 - 'Compress Pictures'
 - Select the option you want. The lower the resolution the smaller the file.
 - 'OK'
 - 'Save'

